A Day in the Life of Westerville High

School buses and automobiles pull into the semicircular drive to begin a school day.

The Day Begins

Westerville High School springs to life each day as the hands of the clock begin to move toward 8 a.m.

Students and teachers make their way to their first classes and the business of education is once again underway.

One of the first items of the day is a trip to a locker.

The whine of machinery starts the day in the shop.

Studying can be done almost anywhere at any time.

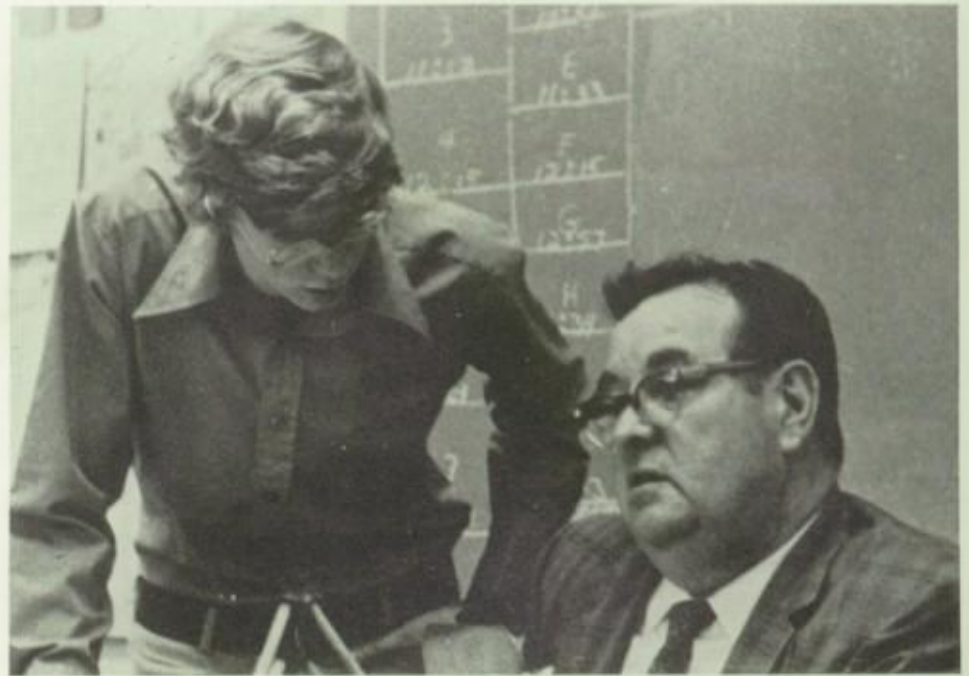

Class projects to make money begin early and go throughout the day.

Mr. Terry Yoakum and Mr. Walt Bahorek plan for another day.

A wish for a peaceful day.

Mr. Joe Ralston explains a concept in chemistry.

Mr. Matt Hayes demonstrates the finer points of a ten speed bike.

Getting an education means using much paper and many pencils.

Mr. Richard Doll calls students' attention to a special historical item.

Mr. Rick Ball tries to convince his classes of the value of Spanish.

Gym class divides up and plays volleyball.

Mr. Dan Fawcett grades a health quiz.

Mr. Tom Pottenburg explains a piece of literature to his English students.

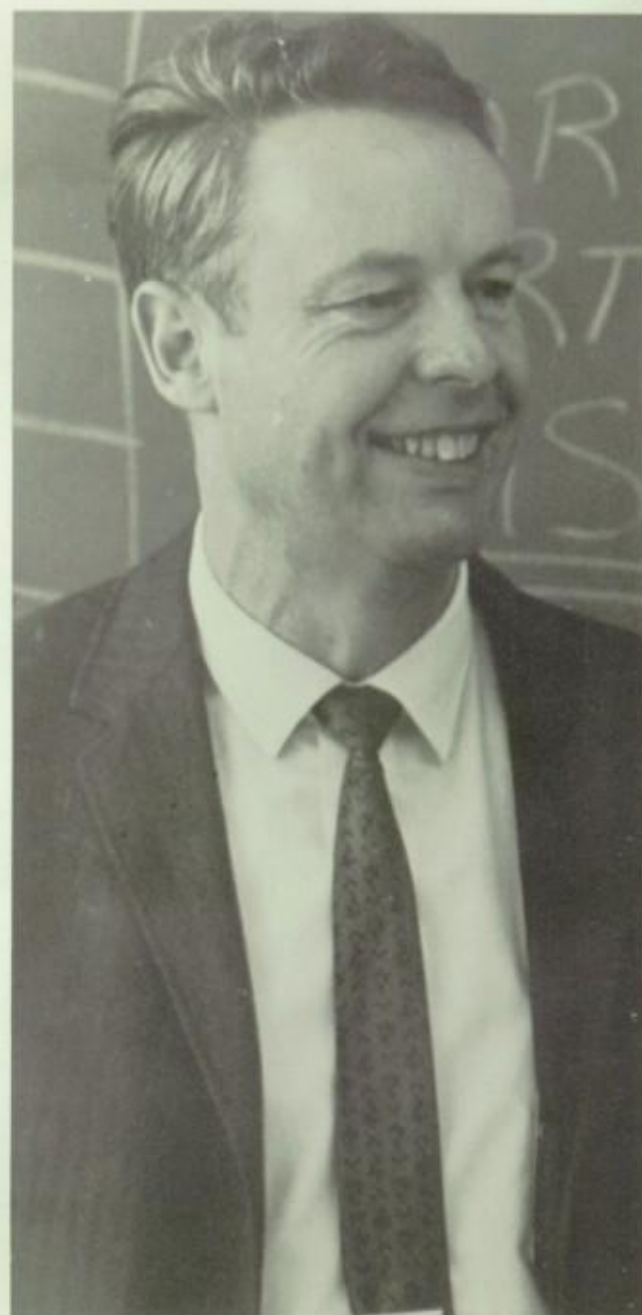

Miss Welch displays a "thank you" cake.

Mr. James Lainer tries to take attendance in a huge cafeteria study hall.

Art students decorate the windows in the "new" hall.

Mr. Tom Crane always has a smile to make the day go a little easier.

Crowded halls — always a familiar sight.

Miss Joy Rose discusses the value of the newspaper in her journalism classes.

Beth Hastings finds a quiet corner in which to study.

The library provides supplemental books and periodicals.

WHS has a parking lot . . .

and a parking rack.

Classes work outside . . .

and classes work inside.

Some students couldn't stand the pace of the day.

Consumer Ec classes saw ecological imbalance in the courtyard . . .

and did something about it.

A snack makes studying a little easier.

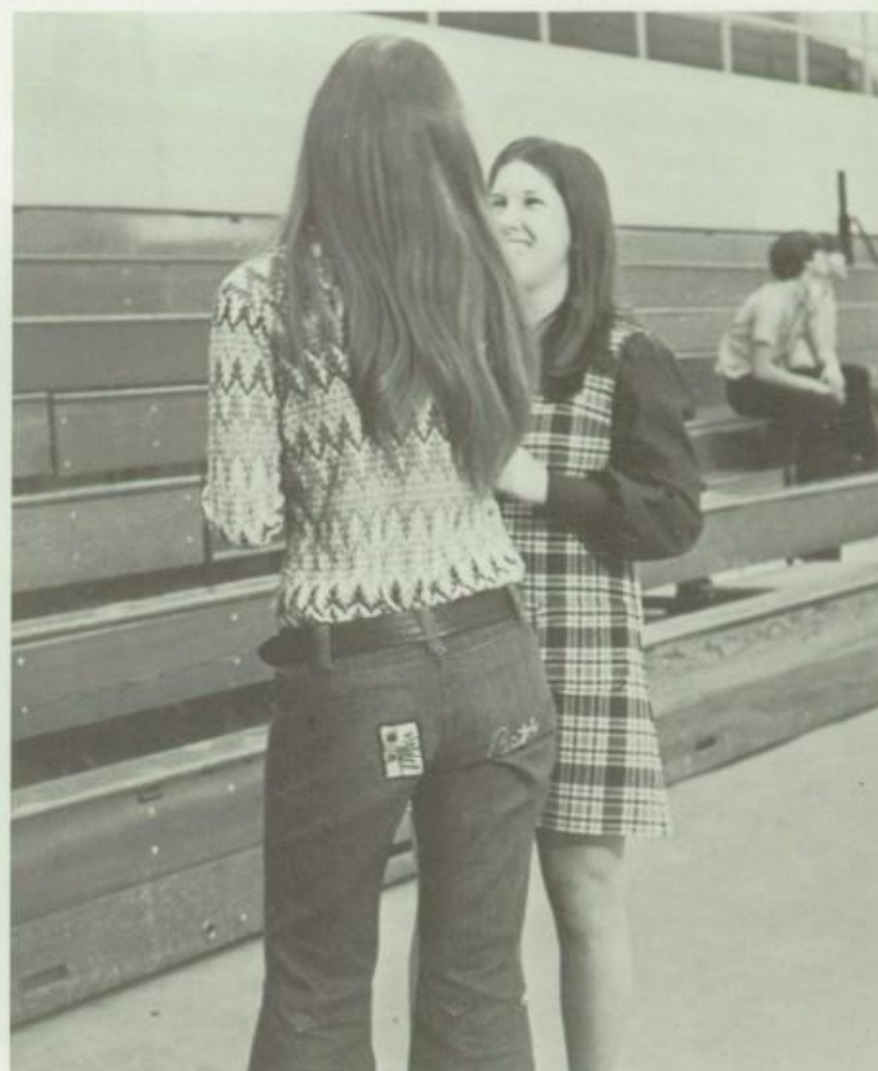

Phys Ed class provides a break in the day.

As the Clock Moves, Students and Teachers go Through the Day.

Miss Joshua questions students "roaming" the halls.

Every day has some happy minutes.

The snows of winter provide for quiet days.

Pep Rallies Increase the Wildcat Spirit

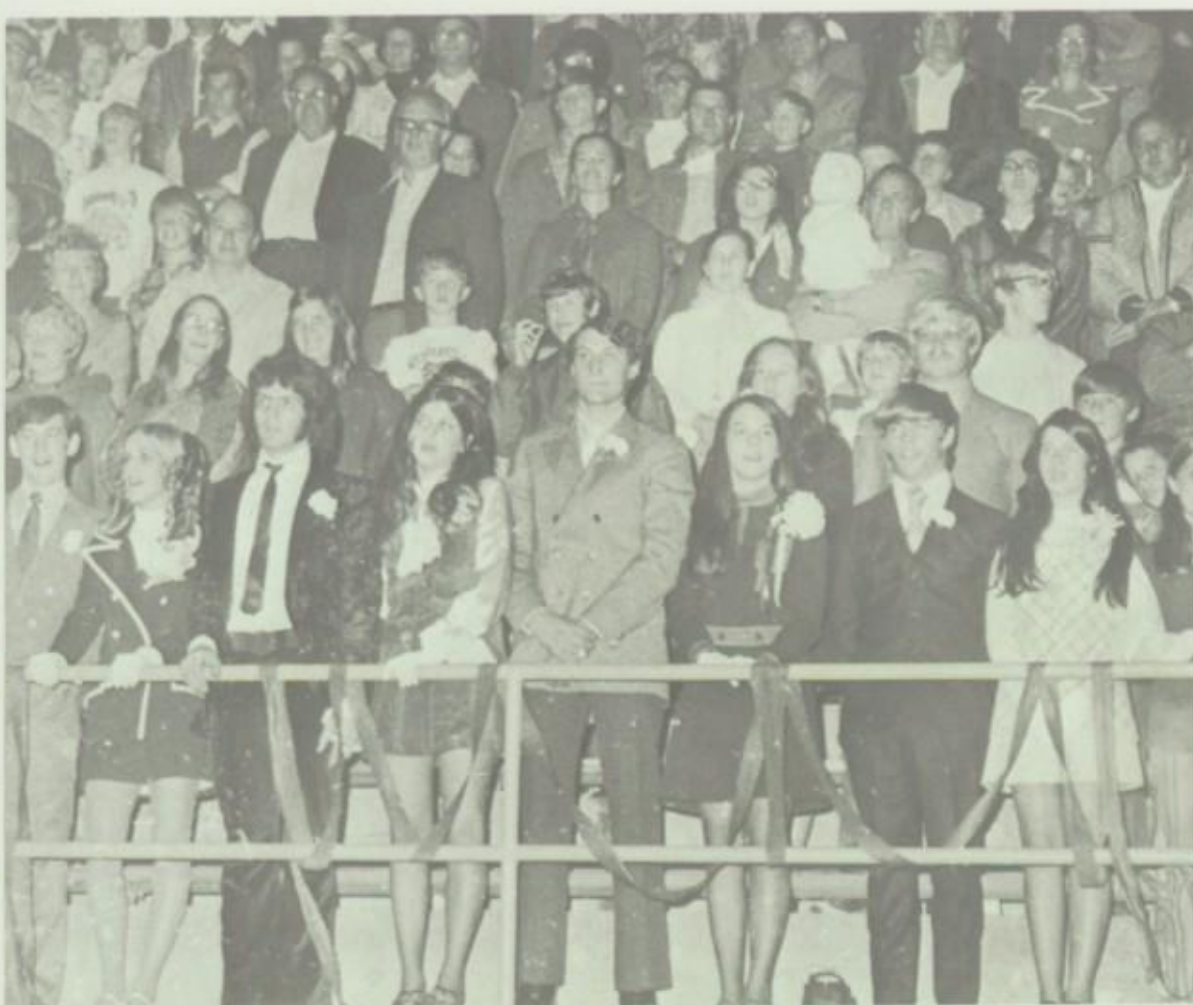

Westerville appreciates its Cross Country team.

The spirit of WHS received a boost on Friday afternoons when pep rallies took place.

The cheerleaders, under the leadership of captain Karen Chickerella, planned the assemblies. They presented several skits and led the cheering.

Westerville's coaches often appeared at the rallies to present their teams and to urge Wildcat fans to come to the games.

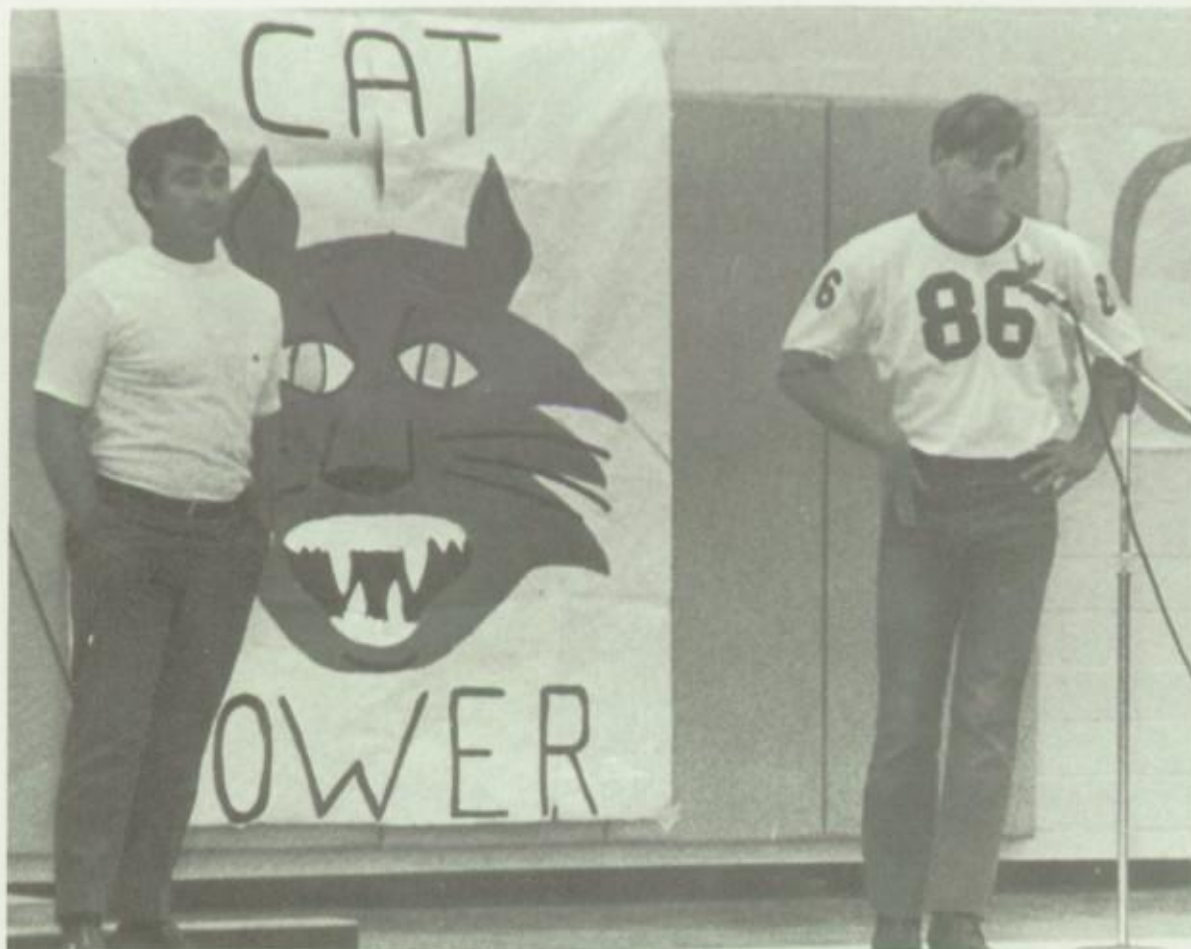

The best pep rallies were the crowds at the games.

The graduating members of the pep band add to the enthusiasm of the coming game.

The offensive unit of the Westerville Wildcats football team lines up for the student body.

Co-captain Doug Antle speaks about the approaching victory while Coach Chuck Burner listens.

WILDCATS, YEAH!

Mark Conklin shows Wildcat fans what he can do.

Basketball coach Terry Yoakum introduces his team to the student body.

"What's the matter with the team? The team's all right!"

Gail Saville Receives White Rose to Begin New Homecoming Tradition

"Milkshake, tummyache, wicky-wacky-wake. We're the class of 58."

The cool "greasers" celebrate "Homecoming at the Hop."

Gail Saville and her escort Tim Kish are presented to the student body at the assembly.

Starting a new tradition, senior class president Mike Disbro gives the queen a white rose.

1970 Fall Homecoming Queen Cathy Olmstead crowns Gail Saville.

The class of 1972 broke tradition during the 1971 Fall Homecoming assembly.

A group of students presented the skit "Homecoming at the Hop," written and produced by Marc Ayle. This was the first non-Thespian entertainment in memory.

Instead of announcing the homecoming queen, senior class president Mike Disbro presented the three senior attendants with roses. The girl who received the white rose, Gail Saville, was crowned by 1970 Fall Homecoming Queen Cathy Olmstead.

The 1971 queen leaves the assembly with her escort to meet her family and friends outside the gym.

Several musical assemblies were presented at WHS this year to entertain the students.

The Campus Crusade for Christ sang modern religious songs. They also spoke to the students about the importance of accepting Jesus Christ as the Savior.

The Caldwell's also appeared in the auditorium. Westerville graduate Patti McCalla is a member of this singing group which told jokes, presented a skit, and sang pop songs to an appreciative audience.

The Campus Crusade for Christ sings religious numbers for the WHS students.

The singers try to prove to the students that Christianity has a place in the modern world.

Musical Assemblies Entertain Students

The Caldwells begin a skit about a general hospital in Westerville.

In the skit, a member of the Caldwells doesn't want to catch what Patti McCalla has.

Patti McCalla returns to the Westerville stage.

Classes Work on Money-Making Projects

The junior and sophomore classes participated in varied money-making projects. These projects provide funds for the Junior-Senior Prom.

The junior class sold Rex cleaner door-to-door. In a booth in front of the guidance office, the class also sold tickets to Loew's theaters.

Sophomores held a candle sale during December.

Rex cleaner salesman tells the assembled junior class the advantages of selling his product.

The class advisor is always concerned with the project's outcome. Miss Sharon Welch discusses the money-making possibilities.

Prince Charming (Mark Frye) wakes up Sleeping Beauty (Jamie Parsons) with a kiss.

The cast of Sleeping Beauty takes a bow for a good performance.

Mr. Richard Ball's third year Spanish students presented the play, "Blanca Nieva y Los Siete Enanos" (Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs) to all interested Spanish students. A student from Chile entertained with some real Spanish music. Gary D. Smith, Mr. Ball's student teacher, sang along.

Señor Smith, Mr. Ball's student teacher, sings with a student from Chile.

Jodie Blateri Reigns as Homecoming Princess

Senior Connie Beachler is escorted by Dave Marburger.

Gary McComb escorts Senior attendant Elaine Clarke.

Senior class vice-president Keith Horton gives the white and red roses to the senior attendants.

The Senior class voted Jodie Blateri 1972 Winter Homecoming Princess. Judie DelGreco, the returning princess, crowned Miss Blateri at the winter homecoming assembly.

Miss Blateri's court members were senior attendants Connie Beachler and Elaine Clarke; junior attendants Jackie Lema and Jamie Parsons; and sophomore attendant Nikki Hodgdon.

Senior class vice-president Keith Horton gave each senior attendant a rose to announce the winner. For the first time, the assembly program did not include a skit. Instead coaches Terry Yoakum and Chris Graves gave speeches.

1971 Winter Homecoming Princess Judie DelGreco crowns Jodie Blateri.

The 1972 Winter Homecoming Court led the student body in singing the Westerville Alma Mater.

Mr. and Mrs. John Blateri indicate their pride in their daughter.

Queen Jodie and her escort Tom Horn.

Homecoming escorts at the end of the school day. Mark Frye, Dave Marburger, Tom Horn, Tom Comery, and Gary McComb.

Instructors from a judo school teach students the art of self-defense.

WHS students spent some spring afternoons wandering through "Collections '72," the student art show.

Some WHS students left the school immediately after their classes due to early dismissal. These students no longer had to sit through hours of study halls. Westerville's atmosphere became relaxed and confused at the same time as teachers tried to discover who was supposed to be in study hall and who was gone.

Miss Joy Rose helps her journalism classes plan the next issue of the Wizekat, the student newspaper.

Students relax during an assembly in the auditorium.

Students Get Early Dismissal

Concert band members end their day under the direction of Mr. Forrest Becker.

Students finally get to go home.

Head majorette Vicki Mapes leads the others during a practice.

The Marching 99, under the direction of Mr. Forrest Becker and Mr. Kenneth Peck, practice after school several nights a week. The group works on intricate movements and practices their music.

At each home football game, the Marching 99 entertained the fans with memorable formations and ringing music.

The Marching '99 works on their pinwheel formation during an after school practice section.

Both Girls and Boys Play Football at WHS

This fall G.A.A. girls played football every Saturday afternoon. The girls were divided into teams under President Cindy Lauber.

The boys' reserve team played some good games this year. The skills acquired from Coach Dan Fawcett's training will hopefully benefit next year's varsity team.

Carida Buoni and Marty Wilkin "tackle" Sue Augustus.

Jen Glascor makes the supreme effort.

Mark Edwards displays the total concentration and effort cross country demands.

Rob Kirkpatric leads the runners through the golf course.

Rick Dewitt finishes a race he's already lost.

Cross Country Places Fourth in OCC

Brad Fowley runs to beat out his opponent during an OCC race.

Westerville High Youth Club members spend their after school time in December planning and decorating for Holly Prom.

Social Events Involve Much Planning

Social chairman Karen Deken draws snowflakes to be used at the dance.

The drama department practices make-up techniques on members of the "Gypsy" cast.

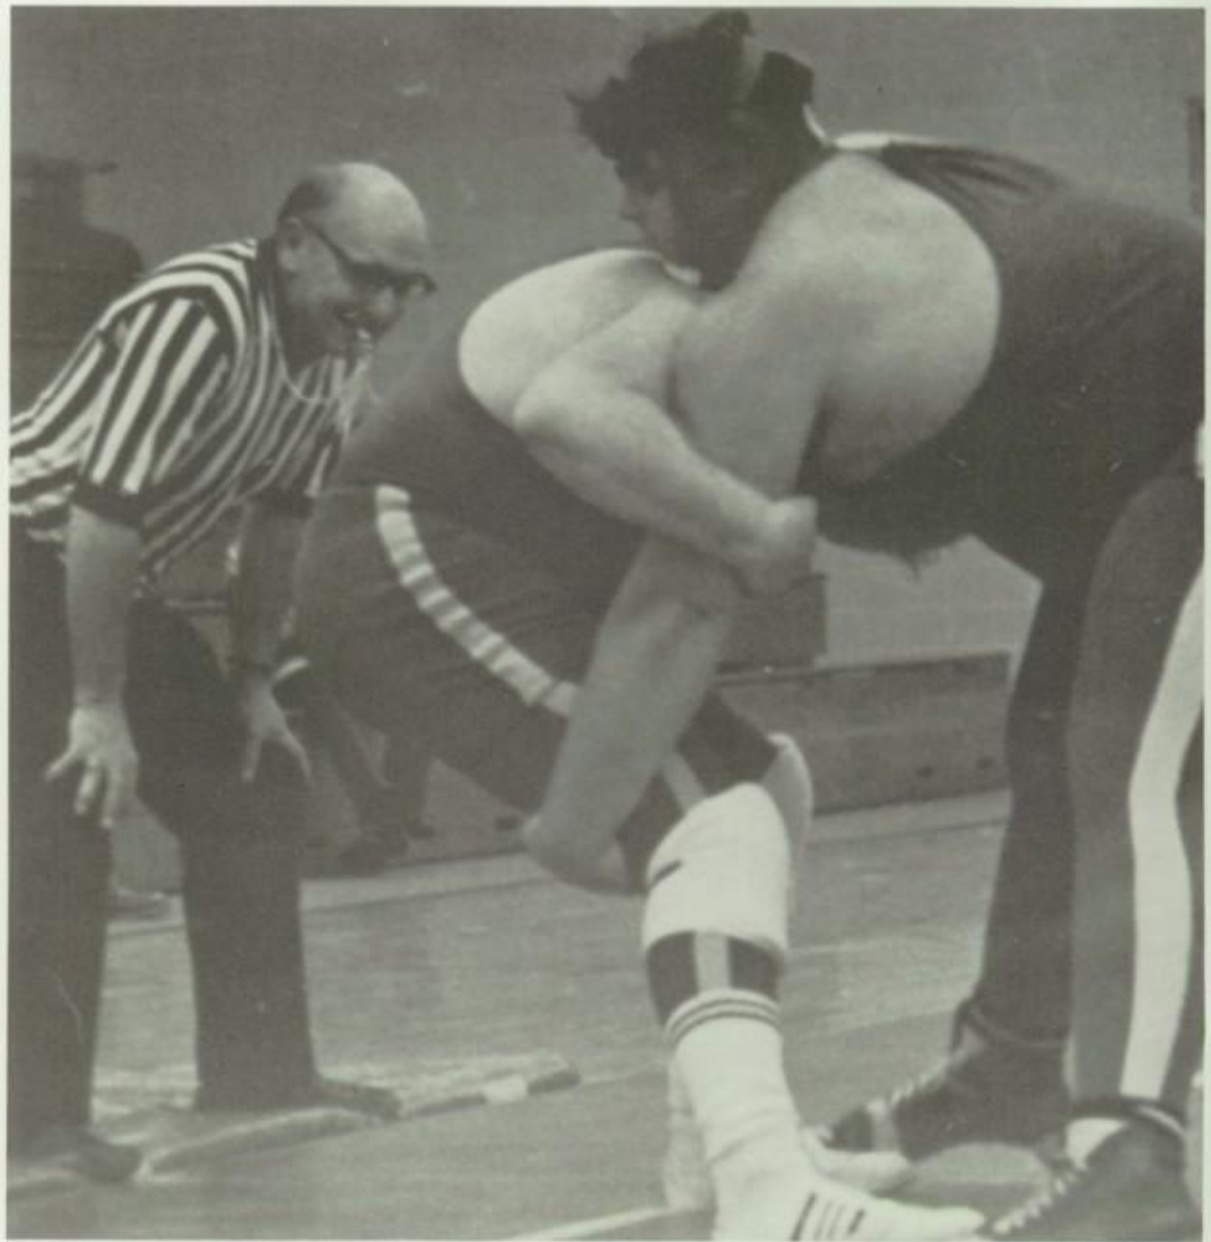

Connie Beachler changes Rick Fuller into an old man.

Many Westerville students actively participated in club activities. They spent their afternoons and evenings doing everything from naming the Holly Prom to practicing dribbling skills for the GAA's basketball teams. When the final product of all their efforts was ready for public view, Westerville students and the community could see all the hard work that went into it.

A Chess Club member practises for a tournament.

Howard Mustain, WHS' champion heavyweight, works on his opponent.

Gary McComb overwhelms his opponent.

Wrestlers Take Fourth in OCC

Gary Ciminello pins down his opponent.

The Wildcat Wrestling Team took fourth place in the Ohio Capital Conference this year. The team suffered injuries throughout the season.

Under the direction of head coach Chris Graves, the grapplers were undefeated in dual meets, at 5-0. The Wildcats placed third in the All North Tournament and sixth in the Top Eight.

Joby Hyatt was named Most Valuable Player.

Wrestlers Garth Gartrell and Rob Rhyan sound out victory on the bell.

Track Cats Take Second in League

Roger Retherford practices his hurdling style.

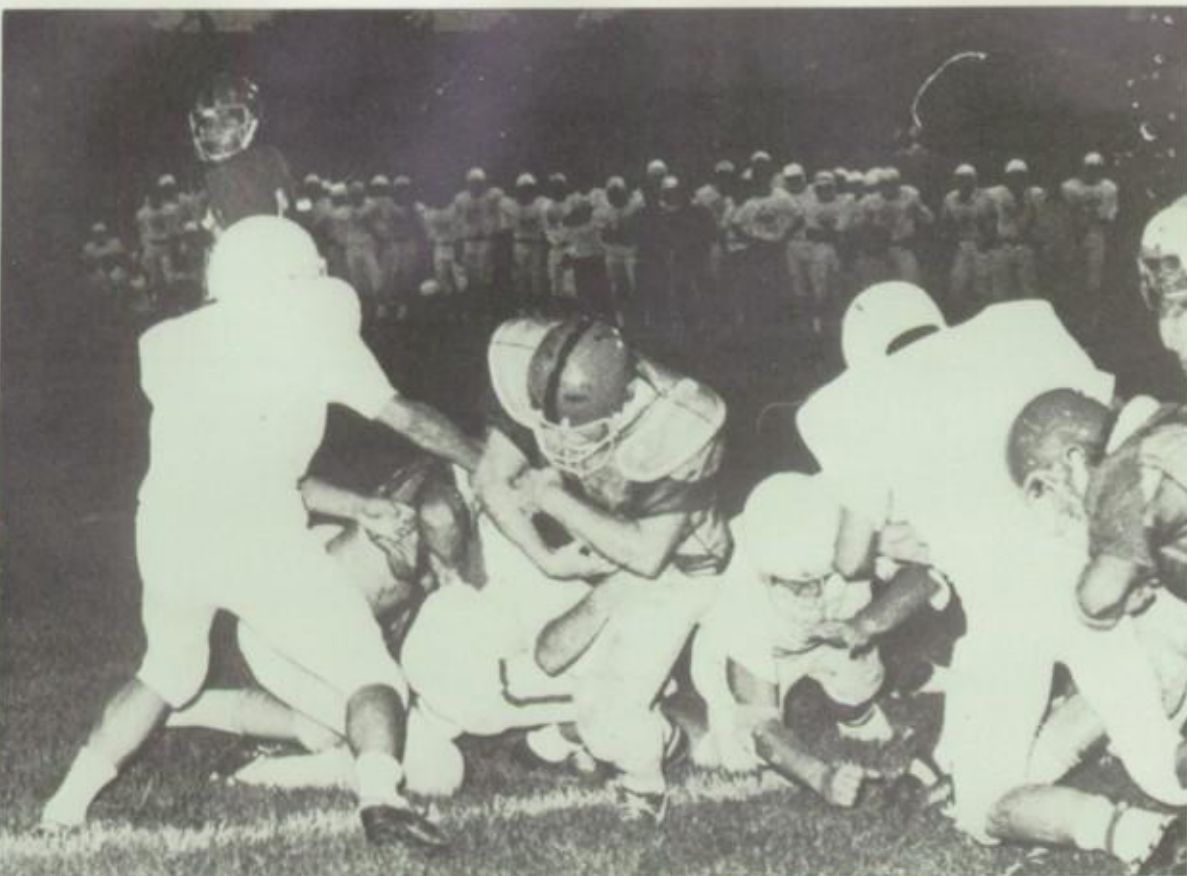

WHS tracksters finished the season with a dual meet record of 5 wins and 3 losses.

Five men qualified for the district meet in May.

Senior hurdler Roger Retherford capped the track season by finishing second in the state in the high hurdles with a time of :14.3.

Westerville Supports Its Football Team

The Wildcats start the year off with a night scrimmage against Groveport.

The football Wildcats nearly won the Ohio Capital Conference championship. A defeat by Worthington and a tie with Gahanna stopped the team from bringing home its first OCC title.

Fans got involved with the team in several ways. The Westerville supporters rode in caravans to away games. Many seniors helped build the '72 float for the Worthington game parade. Wildcat boosters also came to a bonfire to raise spirit for the all-important Worthington game.

The Wildcats lost this game 14-13, the exact score by which the 'Cats defeated the Cardinals in 1970.

Doug Antle, Rob Carder, Bob Nees, Larry Roush, and Steve Wohler were named to the All-League team. Larry Roush received the Most Valuable Player award.

Students watch the bonfire burn, dreaming of a Wildcat victory.

"Let's have three big fights. FIGHT, FIGHT, FIGHT!"

Mrs. Thomas Brundige, Marianne Ramell, Diana Miller, and Debbie Manring fold paper to cover the '72 float in Brundige's garage.

Peggy Madill and Sue Slocum build the "2" for the float.

Fall Production Concerns Prejudice

Arthur and Phyllis Hayes (Allen Roese, Susan Slocum) argue about the attempt to evict the Blake family.

Because he does not want to get involved, Hayes is branded a coward by his wife as his daughter Carolyn (Nan Plummer) looks on.

The concerned residents of Sycamore Street meet at the Hayes home before they descend on the Blakes.

Hearing that they may soon be evicted, ex-convict Joe Blake (Mark Williams) calms his hysterical wife (Nalan Yilmazkapici).

"Thunder On Sycamore Street," the WHS fall production presented the complexities of prejudice to its audience.

Under the encouragement of drama teacher Ronald Nocks and student directors Cindy Pierce and Hattie Sells, the cast members began to understand the intricate nature of their characters.

Nearly seventy-five students worked behind the scenes to insure the success of the production.

On opening night, November 12, the work of the students was obvious to all who attended the play.

Hayes stands up to the mob because he believes they are doing the wrong thing.

The Westerville High Youth Club sponsored this year's Holly Prom. The theme of the prom was Mystical Christmas.

Couples danced to the music of the Bill Davy Combo at the Otterbein Campus Center. Karen Deken and Carla Grezzo planned the event.

Thespians Produce 'Charlie Brown'

The gang from the "Peanuts" cartoon strip appeared on the Westerville stage in the winter production of "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown." The Westerville Thespian Club produced the show under the direction of advisor Ronald Nocks.

Allen Roes appeared in the title role and received the Best Actor award for his performance. Lisa Altmaier, in her first major role at WHS, portrayed the crabby Lucy Van Pelt. Martin Winkleman won the Best Supporting Actor trophy for his role as Snoopy, Charlie Brown's dog. Rick Morris, Larry Wilson, and Hattie Sells also had supporting roles.

Before the ceremony, Fred Rogers and Lynette Robinson, foreground, discuss how to shake hands and receive a diploma at the same time.

A record number of graduates received diplomas from Westerville High School on June 4, 1972.

The 538 members of the class of '72 heard Ohio State Senator Oliver Ocasek say that the high school diploma each one received would be worth 100,000 — the amount of money a high school graduate can expect to earn.

Dr. Curtis Tong, president of the Westerville Board of Education, presented the diplomas.

Junior Class Prepares for Future

The class of 1973 spent the year collecting money and looking forward to the future.

Juniors sold Rex cleaner to area residents. They also sponsored a candy sale and sold Loew's Westerville theatre tickets during the school day.

The class officers, headed by president Tom Comery, spent the money collected from the sales on the Junior-Senior Prom. The dance was held at Valley Dale on May 20.

Five Westerville Students participated in week-long mock government sessions during the summer. Carolyn Rosensteel, Mary-Jane Stewart, and Karen King were delegates to Buckeye Girls' State. Mark Burns and Kevin Lefler attended Boys' State.

Alternates were Chris Baker, Marie Deibel, Kris Roberts, and Mike Disbro.

Forty WHS seniors composed the National Honor Society. The faculty chose the members on their leadership, scholarship, character, and service.

The club sponsored the Senior-Faculty basketball game. Four juniors were tapped in an assembly in the spring. The seniors, led by president Rick Fuller, inducted the juniors into the society during a banquet.

Continuing a tradition of service to the school and the community, the Key Club was led this year by Tom Horn, president, and Mr. Richard Doll, advisor.

Key Club sent items to servicemen in Viet Nam for the fifth consecutive year. Members also supported the Heart fund by selling heart-shaped balloons both at school and in area shopping centers.

During the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays the Club collected and distributed food for needy families.

Although Key Club is the primary service organization at WHS, the club members don't forget the social aspects of life. The parents' banquet, the bowling league, and other activities are an important part of the overall program of Key Club.

The Westerville High Youth Club was formed this year when the Y-Teen Club disbanded. The group, led by president Peggy Grimsley, revised the constitution and became an active service club. The group worked on one project a month.

The Youth Club sponsored the annual Holly Prom. Karen Deken and Carla Guzzo planned the prom, "Mystical Christmas." The Mother-Daughter Banquet was held in May.

The Bi-Phy-Chem Club, Westerville's science organization, spent much of its time coordinating the Science Fair. Members of the club entered projects and served as guides to visitors on Science Day.

The club's officers, headed by Brian Arthur, president, also organized several informal picnics and parties. Once a month, a speaker addressed the club on subjects of general interest.

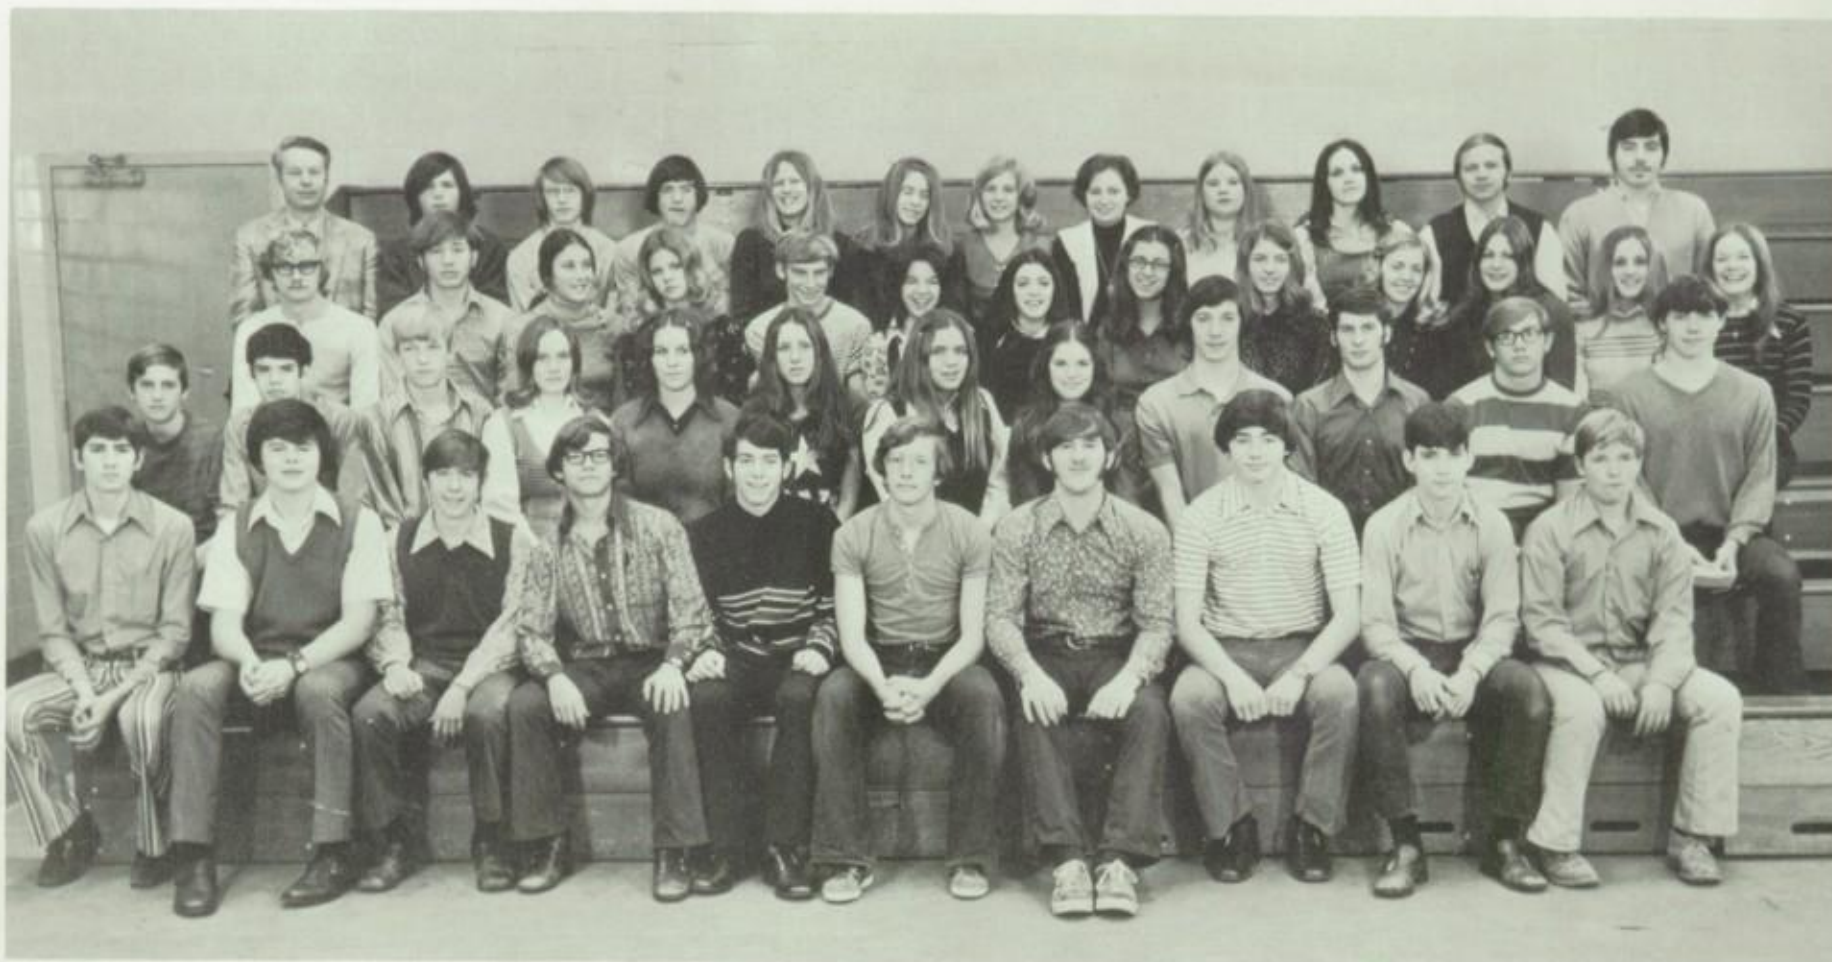

The Thespians again entertained the student body and the community with their fine production. The club presented "You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown" and a night of one act plays.

Many members of the club participated in the fall and spring student plays. Chris Baker served as the club's president.

The Westerville Ski Club spent many cold week nights on the slopes. Members signed up for courses and soon learned to ski down the hills. Mr. Richard Doll, Mr. Tom Pottenburg and Mr. Herman Crane supervised the activities on the slopes and on the long bus rides home.

Westerville's Future Teachers of America spent a busy year studying the complex art of teaching.

The club held its annual Teacher of the Year contest to select the student body's favorite teachers. They also sponsored a bake sale to raise money for future activities. Debbie Jennings served as president.

The Wizekat staff overcame many difficulties each time they printed the school newspaper. Due to lack of funds, editor Kris Roberts was forced to print the paper at WHS. Led by advisor Miss Joy Rose, the students learned to operate the school's offset machine and stayed after school putting the paper together.

The Searchlight staff learned to lay out pages and select pictures in the fall. The staff spent many afternoons selling advertising and wondering if the yearbook would ever come out.

Students gave up their study halls to work for teachers in a variety of ways.

Lab assistants helped younger students through experiments and answered as many questions as possible. The students watched over chemicals and lab equipment during breaks in their lab room card games.

Gym assistants demonstrated athletic skills to underclassmen. They took roll and filled in for absent team members.

Home economics assistants spent their study hall hours making bulletin boards and helping other students pin up hems.

The library workers helped Miss Elizabeth Passmore keep WHS's expanding library in order. They checked out books and filed pamphlets and cards.

Westerville students spent their time in class and after school developing the skills that will help them in the future.

The Art Club sponsored the art show, Collections '72. In this show, art and industrial arts students demonstrated techniques and showed the public their finished projects.

Art assistants spent their free periods checking on supplies and perfecting their own techniques.

For the third year, the Cooperative Office Education program groomed students for the business community. The activities this year included field trips, monthly breakfast meetings, and the annual COE contest.

DECA provided leadership training for its students. The students worked half a day and took business courses.

Cheerleaders Ignite Spirit

The spirit of the Westerville Wildcats was ignited and maintained during athletics contests by the cheerleaders.

Somehow, the cheerleaders managed to come up with energy, pep, and enthusiasm for each contest and the Wildcats Teams knew they had support, especially in football and basketball.

Everyone sees the girls perform at game time, but not everyone realizes the hours that go into painting and hanging signs, and planning the pep sessions and the annual bonfire. The cheerleaders were also responsible for planning the caravans of fans to away games.

Under the advisorship of Miss Kathy Kuns and the leadership of Captain Karen Chickerella, the cheerleaders built enthusiasm and led cheers that helped WHS teams gain many victories.

RESERVE — Nancy Quinn, Marty Nilkin, Vicki Shilly, Jil Hall, Kim Benedum.

The Orchestra, directed by Sidney Townsend, provided background music for the homecoming assemblies. Many members of the group played for the Westerville winter and spring play productions.

Terry Swank was voted the outstanding Senior string instrumentalist.

The Westerville Winds ensemble composed of concert band members, was formed this year under the direction of Forrest Becker.

BOARD OF EDUCATION SECRETARIES — Mrs. Grace Shelley, Clerk of Board; Mrs. Phyllis Park, Mrs. Wanda Schutte, Mrs. Ann Braucher.

No school system can function effectively without the efforts of secretaries who are "the right arms" of those charged with the responsibility of administering all facets of the system.

SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE SECRETARIES — Mrs. Betty Wintermute, Mrs. Mary Jean Benadum, Mrs. Joan Gould, Mrs. Ruth Siegfried.

SECRETARY TO PERSONNEL DIRECTOR — Mrs. Dorothy Pridham.

The heart of any school is contained in the administration.

The principal and his assistant must run the school for the best benefit of the students as well as the faculty.

The way in which people in the school are guided by the clock is determined by Mr. Aukerman and Mr. Raimonde.

Mr. Dana Aukerman, PRINCIPAL

Administration is Heart of School

Mr. Albert Raimonde, ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

Since the 1971-72 school year is the last year in which Dana Aukerman served WHS as principal, the SEARCHLIGHT takes this opportunity to salute him for his service to students and the community.

COUNSELORS — Mr. Chris Clark, Mrs. Mary Kaul, Miss Sharon Welch, Mr. Jim Bowser.

Counselor Ron Jones

Mrs. Marian Fuller, School Nurse

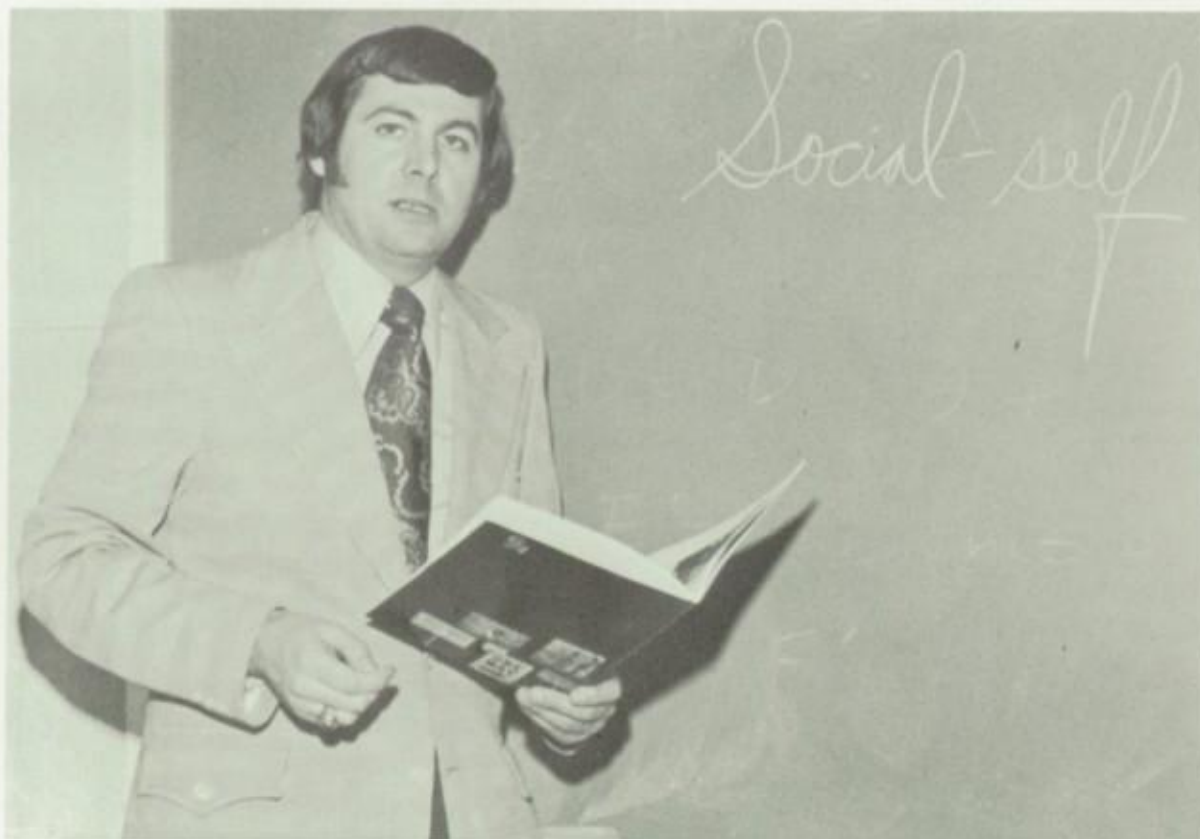

Mr. Walt Bahorek, Athletic Director

Faculty Members Help With Language Skills

The English department did another outstanding job this year. Senior Cinema turned out some interesting movies and new courses are always being added.

The foreign language department worked hard at getting the students to understand French, Spanish, and Latin.

The Spanish classes put on productions such as "The Wizard of Oz" and "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs."

FOREIGN LANGUAGE — Front: Miss Shirley Arnold, Mrs. Ruth Kempshall. Back: Mr. James Lannier, Mr. Rick Ball, Mr. Dalton Lotz.

The students who studied physics as sophomores took a molecular biology course as seniors this year. This course combined chemistry and biology into one science.

Steve Johnson once again took the highest honors at the national science fair. His project on underwater vehicles also won awards at the international fair in St. Louis, Missouri.

SCIENCE — Mrs. Wavalene Tong, Mr. Dale Patterson, Mr. John Evans, Mr. Joseph Ralston, Mr. John Davis, Mrs. Linda Berkemer.

Students Improve Their Minds

MATH — Mr. Robert Short, Mr. George Heimen, Mr. Eldon Grate, Mr. Harry Lacy, Mr. Richard Beadle, Mrs. Helen King.

ART — Mr. Don McMeeklin, Mr. Jack King.

The Music department, vocal section, tried something different this year. Students in Mr. Ron Kenreich's classes sang into a tape recorder and also learned to sight read music. Through this their progress could be evaluated.

Instrumental music merged the Red and White bands into one concert band. Stage band, orchestra, pep bands, and the marching band also performed. A new ensemble composed of woodwinds added to the department this year was the Westerville Winds.

The Art department sponsored the annual art show, "Collections 1972." A collection of work by WHS graduates was also shown in the new hall during May.

Through Science, Math, Art, and Music

Here's how! Just slip your BankAmericard with the Brown Stripe on the back into the Cash'n Carry machine.

Punch your personal identification number (only you and the bank know what it is) punch the button for the amount you need.

Presto! A drawer opens and there is your money along with a receipt for your records. That's cash on the spot!

The touch of a few buttons and our Cash'n Carry machine gives you the amount you need. The money you receive is treated as a cash advance and will appear on your next BankAmericard statement. IMPORTANT: With a City National checking account the money you receive will be automatically deducted from your City National account. What does this modern convenience cost? The same as a regular check. If you do not presently have a City National checking account isn't this a good reason to open one?

For three years I have planned this yearbook, and I have spent the most exhausting days in my life putting it together. Now that all the work is finished, I find the most difficult part of my job has finally come. How can I tell everyone how much their support has meant to me?

I wanted this yearbook to really capture the spirit of the class of 1972. The idea to change the traditional format to formal and informal sections occurred to me last year. I hope this style brings back memories of 1972 in a different and exciting way.

This yearbook could not have been published without the help I received this year. I would like to thank Beth Hastings for all the time and energy she gave to the book, Kerry Gould, Norman Kanagy and Rick Warford for the photography, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Daughtery for all their help, the special non-staff members for working so hard those last days in June, my family for not complaining when I stayed up until three in the morning, and my friends for listening to me talk about the book.

Two people deserve special thanks for, without them, there would not have been a book. So I dedicate this book and all the work that went into it to Joy Rose for yelling at me in all the right spots and understanding me all the time and to Ken Twinem for collecting the money, listening to the hysterics, and being Kenneth for so long.
